

NEW & REDESIGNED READING WORKSHOPS

“Strategies to Charm Your Readers”

for PK-12 Teachers - SPRING SESSIONS 2007

A reading institute will be offered for PreK-12 teachers/assistants to earn up to three (3) licensure renewal credits (or 30 hours) in reading. This NEW series of reading workshops is offered to local teachers through The Professional Development Academy at Elon University. Sessions are free-of-charge. Each session is interactive and hands-on with class participation required. Participants will leave each session with strategies to implement in their classrooms. Participants may earn 1.0, 2.0, or a total of 3.0 renewal credits upon successful completion of these sessions. Teachers currently employed and who are in need of reading renewal credits prior to June 30th for licensure renewal purposes will be given first priority to register for these sessions. Thirty (30) spaces are available in each workshop and will be filled on a first-come/first-served basis.
